Peninsula is a 2020 South Korean action horror film directed by Young Sang-ho. It is a standalone sequel to the 2016 Train to Busan that follows . They put Chul-min in jail, forcing him to take part in a two-minute survival. When he learns that his mother has been killed, he flees. We are watching two people: a mother and a son. The mother has been killed, and the son runs away to find his mother. The film features three women, played by Lee Min Ji, Yoon Eun Hye, and Park Seo Joon. As for the acting, it's pretty weak. In some places, it simply does not reach the level. There is no drama in the film, only a few moments. Visually, it's top notch.
